

Minutes of the Lake Loramie Improvement Association
Meeting of March 20, 2018

Randy Sparklin called the meeting to order at 7:30 p.m. at The Oak Tree. Julie Stueve, sergeant-at-arms, called the roll; all officers and trustees were present. Also, 24 association members attended the meeting.

Secretary Vanessa, read the February 20, 2018 minutes, Dale Armstrong made a motion and Art Barnes seconded the motion to accept minutes after they are amended and was passed unanimously.

Treasurer report will not be in the LLIA minutes or on the LLIA website, however, if anyone, member or non-member of LLIA wishes to know the amount because they do not attend the LLIA meetings, they can ask Belinda about the report and print them if they wish per Art Barnes checking into the legality of this issue.

Committee Reports:

Membership: Belinda also reported we have 301 members, including 61 new this year.

Website: Leon Mertz reported that the LLIA Website has a new look and brought us up to date of tabs that are available to click on. The members feel the website and Facebook is helping us let the public and members of LLIA know what we are doing and keeps events out there.

Facebook: Leon Mertz continues to maintain the LLIA Facebook page, said the numbers of likes and people following the page has increased due to us liking and sharing things that are posted.

Wildlife Funds: Julie has this year's events under control and has already taken care of sending the Grant applications in for next year's event.

Postcards-and photos of the wildlife that Leon photographs were discussed and we talked about having a picture of the month that people could purchase and the proceeds would go to LLIA toward the youth projects that we donate to.

Old Business:

Bob Huecker said that Angela Dulaney told him that we had books left over from last year and that we should all take some and give them out.

Randy discussed Liberty Days and the Fall Festival and ask for volunteers to work and to help find workers.

Belinda Wolaver won the tickets to the DU banquet that was raffled off after the 50/50 drawing,

Cathy Barnes gave us an update on the exercise equipment, it has been ordered and will be here and ready to install come spring.

Leon Mertz updated us on the ADA Boat Launch, he said he was getting donations already. He said that the location and the boat launch has been approved, it will be between the beach and the camping area.

Speaker: Jason Whitman explained that the old walk way by the dam is down and the house and trees are being removed. He said that one of the changes with the state is that he will no longer be carrying a gun or Taser. If we have an issue to report inside the park that we are to call #ODNR to report it, if it is an emergency than call 911. There are 20 camping spots in the park that are being upgraded and Jason went over pricing.

Doug Winner won the 50-50 drawing.

Anne Deiters made motion to end meeting and Doug Metzger seconded, the meeting was adjourned with announcement that the next meeting is scheduled April 17, 2018, at 7:30 p.m. at the Oak Tree Bar.

Respectfully Submitted,

Vanessa Winner, Secretary
